

I hope you are considering your action as a minimum to be followed, not the rule.

I am from Indiana and we have a law already in place that outshines your approach.

--The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Prior to implementation I got calls almost every night. With the implementation of the Indiana Telephone Privacy law I now have my evenings back!! This should be used as a model. Don't degrade it with your lesser attempt!!!
